

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: March 20, 1995

SUBJECT: HB 1546

This bill, if enacted, will allow injured employees to pursue remedies in court when the employer's conduct violates state or federal safety standards and is substantially certain to result in serious injury or death.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in state expenditures; however, such increase cannot reasonably be determined but is estimated to exceed $100,000.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in local government* expenditures; however, such increase cannot reasonably be determined but is estimated to exceed $100,000.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

*Article II, Section 24 of the Tennessee Constitution provides that: no law of general application shall impose increased expenditure requirements on cities or counties unless the General Assembly shall provide that the state share in the cost.
